

Title: Counter Drug Strategies

Aims: To develop participants' ability to counteract drug use

Objectives: Understand Counter drug strategies that can be used
Recognize drug dealers by body language
Develop effective responses
Explore models of successful drug counter action

Target Audience:

This course is designed those who need to respond to drug use. It enables participants to develop the skills required to eliminate drug misuse and target drug dealers.

Course content

- Introductions
- How drug dealers operate
- Signs of dealing
- Psychology of dealers
- Effective responses
- Examining your tools
- Risk assessments and Health and Safety
- Models of interventions
- Examples of successful eradication strategies
- Developing good practice
- Teamwork
- Changing cultures

Commentary

The course covers enables participants to respond to drug dealing, by exploring techniques that they can apply. It provides the training required to develop an effective drug response and explores a range of options available. The role of team working is explored and by examining a range of models of intervention, the organization can develop an effective response to the issue of drug use.