

Title: Infection control

Aims: To train participants in requirements for infection control

Objectives: Examine what infection control is How risk can be measured
Examine legal requirements
Explore good practice

Target Audience:

This course is for candidates who are required to have an understanding of the principals involved in infection control

Course Content

- Principles of control
- Legal requirements
- Sharing good practice
- Types of infection
- Rationale for good practice
- Examining factors
- Health and safety requirements
- Questions and answers
- Revision
- Assessment

Commentary

This course is for those who are involved in or have an interest in infection control. It enables participants to develop an understanding of the legal requirements existing in today's workplace. In addition, it ensures and disseminates good working practices that are required to cover health and safety legislation.