

Title: Leadership skills

Aims: To develop good leadership skills

Objectives: Examine theories of leadership
Explore role models of good leaders
Examine how to develop your leadership potential
Understand motivational theory

Target Audience:

This course is for candidates who wish to develop their leadership potential and enhance their own personal development

Course Content

- Theories of leadership
- Job specification
- Ensuring equality
- Role models
- Developing potential
- Setting your goals and clear objectives
- Motivational theory
- Case study's
- Elements of great leadership

Commentary

This course is for those who wish to develop their leadership potential. It explores leadership and motivational theory, and assesses the candidate's leadership style. It enables participants to develop new styles of leadership, and draw on elements of great leaders to explore common themes that they can utilise in their practice.